

Idra Ritorto Glass

Nason Moretti was founded in 1925 and is now one of the leading glassworks on the Venetian island of Murano specializing in the production of drinking glasses, chalices and decorative table and design objects. The eggplant-hued “Ritorto” glass is an updated iteration of classic glassware that is both modern but respectful to traditional glassware. Each glass is blown by hand for a truly one-of-a-kind creation, so introduce a pop of color or enrich an already eclectic table setting with a set of these marvelous drinking glasses.

Read More

SKU: 7364

Price: $55.00

Stock: instock

Categories: Barware, Others, Table, Table

Product Description

Nason Moretti was founded in 1925 and is now one of the leading glassworks on the Venetian island of Murano specializing in the production of drinking glasses, chalices and decorative table and design objects. The eggplant-hued “Ritorto” glass is an updated iteration of classic glassware that is both modern but respectful to traditional glassware. Each glass is blown by hand for a truly one-of-a-kind creation, so introduce a pop of color or enrich an already eclectic table setting with a set of these marvelous drinking glasses.
